

Employee Engagement Opportunity: Host a Company Team in the 2016

Bay Parade Sunday, May 22, 2016

San Francisco Baykeeper invites you and your employees to join the Bay Area's premier on-the-water event celebrating a clean and healthy San Francisco Bay

Swim | Kayak | Stand Up Paddleboard

Protect the Bay and help make it safe for recreation and wildlife, while having a great time on the Bay – for the Bay! Participation in the Bay Parade demonstrates your company's commitment to Bay stewardship and provides the perfect opportunity for employee engagement and fun team building.

Parade course runs along the San Francisco shoreline to McCovey Cove at AT&T Park.
The Giants feature the parade finale on the Jumbotron at the start of the baseball game.
Anchor Brewing hosts the Bay Parade after party on shore.

Companies are invited to sponsor an employee team. There is no minimum team size, and participant type may vary among team members. Cost of team sponsorship is equal to the sum of the individual participant fees. See below for fees based on participant type. Registration includes entry to the Bay Parade after party.

Companies with 5+ employees participating receive 20% off the total cost.

Swim 6.5 miles from the Golden Gate to McCovey Cove, relay or solo - $300

Kayak from Pier 40 to McCovey Cove, ½ mile each way - $150 ($125 without kayak rental)

Stand Up Paddleboard from Pier 40 to McCovey Cove, ½ mile each way - $150 ($125 without SUP rental)

Register by May 13.

Visit baykeeper.org/bayparade for full event details.

To discuss employee participation, contact:

Eliet Henderson, Development Director
eliet@baykeeper.org | (510) 735-9700 x101